- As part of the Labour Team I will be developing links and supporting the work of the third sector organisations in the area including Friends of Wibsey Park and the activities relating to faith-based work operating from various bases, particularly for older people and families.

- I am also a member of the Bradford District Licensing Committee, Bradford Children's Services Overview and Scrutiny Committee and the Bradford South Area Committee. I will be focusing on developing my role and involvement with these committees to ensure excellent services are delivered to the residents in the BMDC district.
- I plan to focus on developing good networks with colleagues and partner agencies involved in delivering work across the ward and district including the Police to ensure Wibsey residents have access to high quality services.
