KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH YOUR NEEDS

- To attend Royd's Ward partnership meetings, to maintain an up to date understanding of the issues and joint working plans for Royds ward.
- To attend Street and fixed location surgeries to maintain current understanding of individual concerns in the area.
- To work within the Royds Community supporting as many local events and Community groups as possible.

A SAFER COMMUNITY

- To work together with my excellent Colleagues Councillors Tait and Thornton to improve Community safety by advocating that every school has a maximum 20 per mile hour speed limit zone.
- To promote Community safety by supporting police operations re dangerous driving, road safety and untaxed and un-insured cars including attending mobile camera operations and by representing community concerns and ambitions at Bradford South and Royd's Community partnership meetings.
- To support the newly developing Shopwatch Scheme and support the development of new Neighbourhood Watch schemes.

HEALTH PROMOTION

- To work with community organisations to promote health initiative including "Friends of " organisations to develop their community facilities.

REPRESENTING YOUTH

- To meet with Youth organisations and their members to hear their concerns and ambitions. To promote hope for the future with guidance re how these ambitions can be met.
