

Life expectancy at birth

Public Health Bulletin

2018

Key Points

- In 2015-17 life expectancy at birth has increased in both males and females within Bradford District
- Life expectancy at birth for a male born in the District is now 77.7 years and for a female born in the District life expectancy is now 81.6 years. These are both the highest figures recorded for the District
- Life expectancy remains below the average for England and the region for both males and females. However this gap has narrowed in 2015-17
- Life expectancy for males has seen the largest increase when compared to other areas in the region

Life expectancy - males

In 2015-17 life expectancy at birth for males increased to 77.7 years

Although life expectancy remains District remains below both the regional average (78.7) and England average (79.6), the gap has narrowed

The gap between Bradford and the England average has narrowed to 1.8 years

Life expectancy - females

Life expectancy - females

In 2015-17 life expectancy at birth for females increased to 81.6 years

Although life expectancy remains District remains below both the regional average (82.4) and England average (83.1), the gap has narrowed

The gap between Bradford and the England average has narrowed to 1.5 years

Changes in Yorkshire & the Humber (2014-16 vs. 2015-17)

Changes in life expectancy (years) - males

Within males, life expectancy at birth in Bradford District has seen the largest increase in the region

Although still lower than many areas in the region, Bradford District has improved its regional rank from 2nd lowest to 3rd

Changes in life expectancy (years) - females

Within females, life expectancy at birth in Bradford District is one of a handful of areas that have seen an increase in the region

However, Bradford District remains the 2nd lowest in the region for female life expectancy