Number of Young carers completing the interventions against targets – there is still a quarter of this year left to add to this data

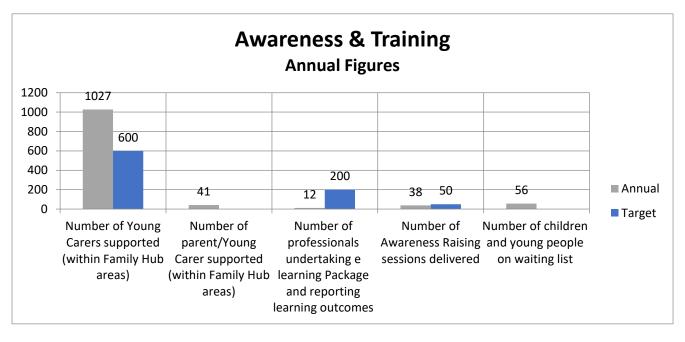

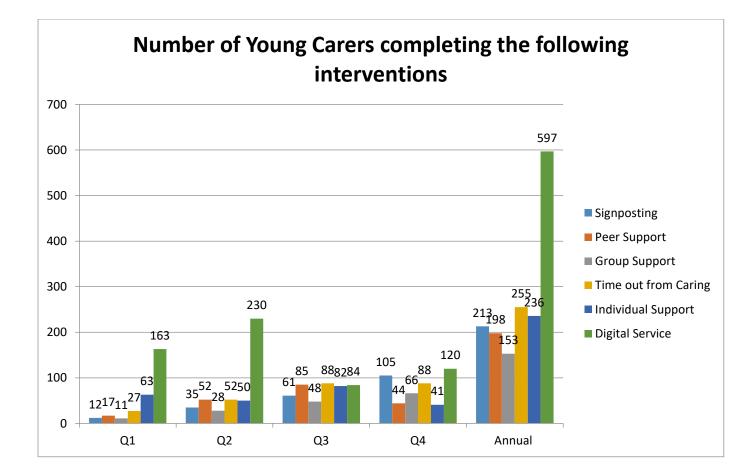

There is still a quarter to go on this chart and the target is more fully explained in chart 3

Chart 3 explains more fully the target

The following chart Part 3 demonstrates the Number and Percentage figures for the year so far 2021/2022 – NB there is one quarter remaining.

Part 3
Number and %of C&YC reported	Number	%	Target in %
Reduced impact of caring	324	69%	60
Improved understanding of the illness/disability/condition of the person being cared for	105	63%	60
Improved social life/friendships	258	62%	60
Improved family relationships	142	71%	60
Improvements at school/college/education provider	88	62%	60
The physical and emotional health and wellbeing of Young Carers is improved, including the development of resilience	263	65%	60
Young Carers are prepared for adulthood and transition	59	83%	60
Young Carers are supported to develop confidence and are supported to participate in decisions affecting them.	150	90%	60
The person being cared for has access to the support and benefits they require	53	93%	60

The chart below shows the same comparative data for 2020/2021 Number in chart A

Chart A – the number is dark blue is the annual figure.

