1. SUMMARY

- 1.1 Shipley Area Committee is invited to consider the report presented to Council Executive on 15th September 2015.
- 1.2 This report provides an update to the report presented to the Council Executive on 13th January 2015 and subsequently to the District's Area Committees regarding the issue of child sexual exploitation (CSE). It sets out the arrangements that have been put in place, and which continue to develop, to safeguard children from CSE.
- 1.3 Section 10 of the appended Executive committee report sets out six recommendations to be considered by the Council Executive on September 15th 2015.

2. BACKGROUND

- 2.1 Please refer to the attached report.
- 2.2 Since the completion of the appended report it is possible to provide further information as an update regarding work undertaken by the Local Authority Youth Service to contribute to the partnership 9 point strategy for tackling CSE, which is appended to the Council Executive Report.
- 2.3 The Youth Service demonstrates a strong commitment to ensuring that its practitioners and managers receive relevant training and support regarding CSE with good take up of the CSE on line learning module. This commitment to developing the service awareness and skills in relation to CSE is demonstrated by an event delivered during Safeguarding Week (19 – 23 October). This was a professional development day for the Service entitled: "Early intervention and prevention of CSE - sharing good practice in youth work".
- 2.4 A senior council officer with responsibility for the Youth Service is a member of the Bradford Safeguarding Children Board (BSCB) CSE sub group and this ensures a coordinated contribution to the delivery of the 9 point strategy for tackling CSE.
